

Military Construction and Veterans Affairs and Related Agencies Appropriations
Bill, Fiscal Year 2007

TITLE I – MILITARY CONSTRUCTION

Objectionable Provisions in the Report

Minor Construction

$1.5 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a General Instruction Building in Fort Lewis, Washington.

$1.45 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Multifunction Center at Camp Rudder in Eglin Air Force Base, Florida.

$1.4 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Railroad Line Spur at the Hawthorne Army Depot in Wabasha, Nevada.

$1.5 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Bachelor Officers Quarters/Bachelor Enlisted Quarters at the Ravenna Training and Logistics Site in Ohio.

$1.4 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Barracks project in Los Alamitos, California.

$1.5 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Billeting, Regional and Readiness Technology Center in Northfield, Vermont.

$1.5 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Rappelling Tower at Camp Dawson, West Virginia.

$1.5 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Dining Facility at Camp Roberts in San Miguel, California.

$1.0 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Vehicle Storage Facility for the 31st Civil Support Team in Smyrna, Delaware.

$1.45 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Deployment Processing Facility at the Great Falls International Airport in Montana.

$1.4 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for an Engine Shop Addition/Alteration at Naval Air Station/Joint Reserve Base in Fort Worth, Texas.

Planning and Design

$3.37 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for an Aviation Readiness Center Addition/Alteration in Helena Regional in Airport, Montana.

$500,000, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Body Repair Building in Red River Army Depot, Texas.

$1.3 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Regional NCO Academy in Fort Richardson, Alaska.

$1.8 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Consolidated Base Support Center at Dyess AFB, Texas.

$900,000, not requested by the President, was earmarked for an Information Technology Complex (phase II) at Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio.

$1.55 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Joint Intelligence Technical Training Facility (Phase I) at Goodfellow AFB, Texas

$1.3 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Parking Structure at the Los Angeles Air Force Base, California.

$1.75 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for the 33rd IOS Operations Facility at Lackland AFB, Texas.

$2.0 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for a Regional Training Institute at Camp Dawson, West Virginia.

$1.164 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for the United States Property and Fiscal Office in Nashville, Tennessee.

$3.0 million, not requested by the President, was earmarked for the United States Property and Fiscal Office in Buckhannon, West Virginia.

TITLE II – VETERANS AFFAIRS

Objectionable Provisions in the Bill

- $13 million above the Administration’s request for the Veterans Health Administration.
- $1,100,000 above the Administration’s budget request for the Office of Inspector General.
- $30 million above the Administration’s request for Construction of major projects.
- Section 216 authorizes veterans who reside in Alaska to obtain medical care services from the Indian Health Service or tribal organizations. Authorizing on appropriations.
- Section 225 which extends the authority provided in 2011 of title 38, United States Code to September 30, 2007 for a grant program to aid homeless veterans which expired in September 2005. Authorizing on appropriations.
- Section 228 authorizes a medical center in New Orleans to be treated as a “major medical facility project that has been specifically authorized by law” thereby allowing the Secretary to obligate and expend amounts for the project. Authorizing on appropriations.

Objectionable Provisions in the Report

- $40,000,000 above the Administration’s request for an ambulatory care facility in Pittsburg, PA.

TITLE III – RELATED AGENCIES

Objectionable Provisions in the Bill

- $1,250,000 above the Administration’s request for the American Battle Monuments Commission.